“ The loss of Adam was a loss for an entire community. I feel for the family. Even two years after he's gone he still crosses my mind.

“ My heart breaks for you Beth - for you both. As you may remember, Adam reached out to me a long time ago at a time he knew I needed some guidance - both physically and mentally. My biggest regret now is that I allowed my assumptions to out weigh my instincts and those kept me from reaching out again.. Out of all our talks there were two very definite observations: one, that his love and admiration for you was above all other; and two, that he knew with every fiber in his being, that you loved him and supported him completely. You were always there for him and he knew that. Please don't ever doubt it. We love you. Ann & Leon
