Anna Jean was a Christian and her love for God was at the center of her life. She was a member of the Eastside Church of Christ. She loved and cared about her church family very much. She attended church services regularly and one of her favorite things was singing praises to God.

She was a loving, caring, and devoted daughter, sister, niece, cousin, and friend, whose love for all of these was as big as her huge heart could hold. She will be greatly missed by all those whose lives she touched with her kindness, humor, and big heart. She was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. She loved hard and cared greatly for people less fortunate, as well as those in the disabled community. She spent many of her adult working years serving the disabled community. Recently, she began a new endeavor in the field of sales and was doing quite well.

She was also very fond of traveling, shopping, gift-giving, and spending time with family and friends, which usually resulted in great conversations and hilarious laughter. She also enjoyed spending time with her two dogs, Gilbert and Izzy, who she loved very much.

She had a wonderfully close and special bond with her brother. They loved each other fiercely and always supported each other through life's adventures and trials. They were the best of friends.

Anna Jean was the light of her parents' world and kept them laughing through life. They loved her beyond words, and she will leave a huge hole in her family.
