

Annalice White Deemer

April 30, 1969 - January 31, 2020

Annalice White Deemer, 50, of Athens, passed away January 31, 2020, at Athens Limestone Hospital. She was born on April 30, 1969 in Athens to Frank and Ann Beattie Deemer.

She was reunited in death with her mother, grandparents and numerous pets who were waiting for her across the Rainbow Bridge. She is survived by her father; her brother John Deemer (Stephanie); her beloved nephew and niece, Jack and Bentley Deemer; aunts, Bobbie Deemer Evans and Alice Beattie Tiller (Eddie); uncle, Ernest Beattie, Jr. (Gerry); numerous cousins and extended family; and special friends Samantha Engan and Steve Blankenship, all of whom she loved deeply.

Annalice graduated from Athens High School in 1987. She devoted her life to helping others, be they humans or animals. Her beautiful smile and contagious laugh brought happiness to many. She will forever be remembered for her caring heart, giving ways, and how fiercely she loved those she held dear. She was an immensely gifted artist and created countless pieces that many will treasure in her memory.

A memorial service will be held at Athens First United Methodist Church on Thursday, February 6th at 3:00 p.m. The family will receive friends at the church beginning at 1:30. A private interment will occur at a later date in the columbarium at the church. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to your favorite animal shelter or charity.
