“ To the family of "Nanny Sue", when Andy and Tammy started dating Milton and Sue just took to me like I belonged to them. Nanny always had a smile and hug for me. I can't tell you how many times I drove more than 10 or 15 minutes out of the way just to see her smiling face and buy a Sun-Drop that she did not want me to pay for. I loved her dearly, and I know it is so hard for you to be here without her. I loved her like she was my family, and if you'd asked her she would have said that I was. She was wonderful that way. I pray that you are comforted as much as God sees fit, and that you can focus on all the good times and great memories that you have. Love and peace to you all! ~Mary (Nave) Lowery~
