“ So sorry but know she is on a better place!
She and Wynette are having a great time watching all of us from above. 🙏❤️

“ She was always kind to me, and we had great laughs about leaving automobile paint on the alley corner of her bank. I shall miss her charming smile. She was in every way a true southern gentlewoman.

“ I remember Betty always being dressed to the “nines” when she came to work at Reliance Bank. My favorite memory was when she came to work in one of her professional dresses and she had on two different high heel shoes. Her new nickname became “Betty Two Shoes” thereafter which always made her giggle. Betty, I will always appreciate our time together and your green bean salad!!!

To Penny, Brad and the family, I pray that the family finds peace with Betty being in Heaven. All my prayers and thoughts,
