“ Brad was my cousin. We were only 3 months apart and every time we went to Grandmothers house, my first question was is Brad coming?!

We always had so much fun as kids and teenagers. After I started driving up to Athens myself... we would hang out riding in his low rider or my Miata jammin out to “bone thugs and harmony”

I totally think we played “crossroads” on repeat for hours. ESP when we had the top down on the Miata in the summer time :)

I'll never forget those days. Playing hide and go seek, horseshoes, playing on the well.... And waiting on those grape pop cycles to be frozen enough to eat. They were our favorite summer treat at Grandmothers.

As adults we had a lot of good conversations about life, kids, marriage, heartbreaks, mistakes and redos

He was a good guy and I will forever miss him. Until we meet again Bradley Michael.

I'll never forget you.

I love you-
