“ Aunt Rosie Oh! the memories of the hot summer days sitting in the carport and you teaching me how to shell beans, calling Freddy over to go fetch us a ripe watermelon out of the garden for all our hard work. Learning that in the South, Lunch was called Dinner and Dinner was called Supper and everyday you had both made and ready when your boys came in from the field. I never heard you call memaw anything but Ms. Barron you had so much respect for everyone. Your name says it all. A Beautiful "ROSIE" just bloomed in heaven. Until I see you again love Lisa
