“ My deepest sympathies to all of Charlottes family.
I knew Charlotte through Janet, one of my best friends in the world.
Seems for the last 7 seven years that there has not been a time that I have not either spoken with Janet about Charlotte or thought of her, prayed for her and her family. I know She is now in our Lords arms, out of pain, however, the loss of her is real and will take time to get use to. You never get over losing someone but with Gods help learn to live with it. Please remember the good times and know that in spirit She will always be with you, in your child's smile, laugh, your words, even the reflections in your mirror. May God be with you and hold you tight during these times and remember She will always be in your heart!

and prayers.
