“ I remember so many good times, growing up with Connie: playing in the barn loft and the creek, walking to Vinson’s store with our dimes and nickels to buy candy and cold drinks, spending the night together, swimming at Wolverine picnic area, to name a few. But my strongest memories are of how she helped me and my family after my parents died. She helped us get through those difficult first days after the accident. She set aside her own grief and shock to support us. Through the years since the accident, she had always checked in with me on the date of the accident. She never forgot my birthday. She was ever loving, thoughtful and kind. I will treasure memories of her all the days of my life. My deepest and most heart felt sympathies to her family.

“ So sorry for your loss. I did not know Connie but I know her son Wes and his family. Wes is a great husband and father. I am sure this was the influence of a loving and caring mother. Our love and prayers are with your family during this difficult time. With love, James, Mary Jane, and Janie McCarthy
