“ This December would be 8 years ago that I met Dana. We had moved here from Florida and had been here just a week. I was in the yard and Dana walked over and introduced herself, we talked for a few minutes and she asked if we were going back home for Christmas and I said no. The next words out of her mouth were well y'all are coming to our house for Christmas breakfast. I tried to say no we were fine to be here by ourselves and she wouldn't hear of it. She insisted we come!! Well we went and had the best time. She and her whole family and friends could not have been nicer. We felt so welcomed. I was amazed at her kindness. So that was the beginning of our friendship. Dana was so funny, You knew it was going to be a funny story when she would say "never in my life"! She was so kind, sweet, caring, giving and strong. Elmer and I will miss her dearly.
