“ So sorry to hear of Ralph’s passing. Found out just today (Jan. 30). He was a very nice man,especially to my Dad. His wife Barbara would make and bring Dad a loaf of homemade bread,on occasion.Again,sorry for everyone’s loss!

“ Ralph is the third friend from my teenage and young adult years that I have lost over the past couple of months and all were from East side. He was such a good man and a faithful Christian. My deepest sympathy to Barbara and Tammy and Sara Beth. I have such fond memories of our times together and our girls playing together. Heather and I still talk about the time that you took her with you to Charlotte to see my parents and Ralph wanting to keep her. He talked about it the last time I saw him at East side right before the lock down. I am so glad I decided to visit that night. I love you all and will keep you in my prayers. Take courage and lean on the Lord. He will carry you through. Love, Jeannie Thornton
