“ Dennis Roberts was a good cousin I was only one out of all of my brothers and sisters that was close to him. He loved to laugh and joke and kid around. He was there to talk and help you out or anyone else out. I could talk to him without a problem; he was a good listener. I remember I messaged him one time upset and he asked what was wrong. So I told him, and he sent a message back even though it was on messenger or through text he understood and told me he was there for me. I know you're up in heaven watching over everyone, and you're probably up there catching up with your mom and dad and sister. Rest in peace, cousin. Love you! See you soon on the other side save me a seat, gonna miss you a lot
