“ Where do I begin. First off I miss you like crazy but I know your free of cancer and no more pain. It was a honor to be your caregiver for the last 4 yrs. I made memories that will last me a lifetime. We made some awesome friends along the way during this journey. I wouldn't take a thing in this world for our time spent. I thank God I got to be with you when you took your last breath. Til we meet again I LOVE YOU. SAVE ME A SEAT THERE. REST IN PEACE SWEET LADY. YOU WAS THE KINDEST SOUL IVE EVER MET. I'll take it from sissy will be cared for as I promised you. Shine bright for me and I'll see you shining up there.

“ Nannie could light up a whole room. She was the strongest women I’ve ever met! She always tried help anyone and everyone. She meant the absolute world to me and always looked after me and I know she will continue to do so. Me and jasmine would always bring our friends over to her house and she welcomed them with open arms and loved them like her own grandkids. She impacted many peoples life but she impacted mine since the day I was born. She always used to tell me if you do something for me I will dance at your wedding and I know she will in spirit. She brung love, and happiness to everyone. I love you nannie ❤️
