“ Dear sister Pat and all of the Mitchell family, What a blessing brother Earl has been to all of us in different relationships and many ways! We praise and thank God for his faith, hope, and love in the Lord which touched so many hearts and lives. I keep a picture of us in the Philippines together on my desk because he was such an inspiration and encouragement to me through the years. May God bless and comfort all of you! In Christian love, Ron Halbrook
