“ I am so sad and sorry about the passing of my Aunt Earlene. She was such a sweet and kind lady. My sister and I will miss talking to her. She would always say, “thank you for calling, call me again and don’t forget me”. She will truly be missed. Thank you, Jeff, for taking good care of her. She always said you were so good to her. She loved you. We love and miss you, Earlene. ❤️

“ I am Earlene's granddaughter, and I am so thankful to have had MaMa with me all these years. Every time I mentioned her to others, they could hardly believe I was so blessed to still have her in my life. MaMa could be feisty at times, but she was always so sweet, and she was also very thoughtful of how other people were doing.

I'm also grateful for the time we shared in the last several years as we spoke almost daily. And even though MaMa was beginning to have issues, she always ended conversations with what was going well in her life.

MaMa was also blessed to have seen her first great, great-grandson (my grandson) who was born exactly a year ago. Every photo I sent her, she would say, "He's such a PRETTY baby!" She was also excited to learn that she was going to have yet another great, great-grandchild this September.

MaMa lived a long, beautiful life and saw and experienced things that we can only imagine. I am also very thankful that her son-in-law Jeff took great care of her after my Aunt Shirley passed away. And while those of us who loved her will miss her dearly, we can take comfort that she and Shirley are now together for eternity. I love you, MaMa!

Theresa, My sister and I talked to Earlene just about once a week, except for the past two months when there were times she didn't answer her phone. We know she loved you so much. She would tell us she talked to you every day. Praying God's comfort and peace for you.

Thanks, Sylvia, that means so much. I miss her already, but it was so good to see and reconnect with you and Carolyn at the funeral. Love you both. Theresa “Earlene was my dad’s youngest sibling. She was so sweet, kind and had a sense of humor. I’m going to miss my sister and I calling and talking to her. She is going to be missed by those who knew and loved her. Prayers for Jeff who took such good care of her.
