“ I worked alongside George for many years at NBC as we supervised Video Tape Operations. It was fun working there together 36 years ago. George had a great, dry sense of humor delivered with his deadpan look. He had great integrity and dedication to his work. I have many fond memories. God rest his soul.

“ Aunt Marian and Uncle George are very special to me. I loved when they would come to visit. Uncle George would always slip me money and say it was because I smiled for the pictures we were taking. I am very sorry I cannot make it for the funeral, but my love goes out to you all.

“ My Uncle George was a treasure and I am so grateful that him and my Aunt Marian were able to meet my daughters Coleen and Lana and three of my Grandchildren on their visits to California. I offer my deepest sympathy to my Aunt Marian and Family.

My Love,
Lois and Family
