“ My Son-In-Law, Gerald D. Woody, I will miss you because you have always been an outstanding gentleman and kind. You have gone out of your way to make sure everything was perfect during our visits to you and my daughter, Patricia. The things I remember most in my mind are the little ducks at the lakeside and during our last conversation you told me that you were going to hurry up and get better so we could visit because the little ducks were waiting for me. You told me that every time that you seen them, you would think about me. I prayed that you would get better so that we could visit. I know you are with Our Father in Heaven and that my mother, Lucille was waiting there to greet you along with the rest of our family that has gone before us. I love and miss you, dearly. Your Mother-in-Law, Eva Shanks

Son-In-Law, we could have done a lot more fishing if we had not lived so darn far apart. I will remember you as a great Son-In-Law, with a kind soul and a big heart.
