“ Grady was a good man who loved God, his family, and his friends. He was a humble man who I was glad to call my friend. Sarah Beth, he loved you so much. What a blessing you were to him and your mother. We are praying for comfort.
Love, Holly &. Heath.

“ Grady played a large role in my younger years along with his niece, Gladys King Christian, and my Uncle , Harold Johns. The guys were the same age , 10 years old and Gladys and I were 7 when we met . Gladys and Grady were very close as were Harold and I. We all went to Piney Chapel school together. We had so many good times and memories made that still mean the world to me ❤️! I will miss those big ole bear hugs from my precious friend💔.

Sarah, your Dad was a great man among men! Of course I know that is not news to you ❤️!

On days when you are really missing him, JUST TAKE THOSE OLD RECORDS OFF THE SHELF 😍😍😍! Find your self dancing and enjoying that good ole rock and role like your dad loved so much ❤️ And know he is smiling down with all that love and pride that he had for you!

Love ya Sweetheart. Please call anytime you would like to talk to another great admirer of your Dad and my life longfriend, the one and ONLY, never to be forgotten , Grady Long.

I love you Grady 😊
