“Kane was a humorous, fun, little boy. He loved playing outside, swimming, and trying to play with anything Rorrie was playing with. Even though he was older than Rorrie, he was always competing with his fast learning, more attentive sister. Kane loved watching his cartoons, and his favorite to watch on Netflix, at my house, "Flash" series. He fought sleep so often, that he would often fall asleep with his mouth full. I will miss the rambunctious little boy.

“My Grandson Levi will miss Kane very much! They became friends on the first day of 1st grade. I wish they had longer than the few weeks they were given to enjoy each other and grow their friendship. Levi is so sad that Kane is gone away from all of us, but he knows he is with Jesus! God bless all of Kane's family and friends.
