

Gwen Haynie Bullock

October 4, 1931 - July 13, 2025

Gwen Haynie Bullock, 93, of Athens, passed away on Sunday, July 13th, 2025. Mrs. Bullock was born on October 4th, 1931, in Booneville, Mississippi, to Rubel and Emma (Lauderdale) Haynie.

Mrs. Bullock is survived by her daughters, Lynnette Gibbs (Chris) and Beth Mobley (Tommy); granddaughter, Elizabeth Bullock; son-in-law, John Cox ; granddaughter, Sally Girard (Jody); grandsons, Zachary Gibbs (Brandy) and Samuel Havelly (Amanda); great-granddaughters Elizabeth Gwen Girard and Lydia Girard; and great-grandsons, Jace Gibbs and Zak Gibbs.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Rubel and Emma Haynie; husband, Tulon Bullock; daughter, Deborah Bullock Cole; and grandson, David Cole.

Visitation will be Saturday, from 12:00 – 1:45 p.m., at Limestone Chapel Funeral Home. There will be a private family graveside service.

Mrs. Bullock loved education and was an advocate of her family going to college. In high school, she received the nickname, “Jolly Junior”. She attended college at Mississippi Northeastern College. She was a faithful servant of God and a member of Market Street Church of Christ where she taught Sunday school. She loved music, and her favorite songs were Washed in the Blood and Amazing Grace. She would often recite Psalm 23. She was caring, loving, and would do anything for her kids or grandkids. Her family knew her lovingly as “Mama Gwen”. She also substituted at Athens City Schools for many years.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in Gwen's memory to Market Street Church of Christ.

“Mama Gwen, although I did not know you, I know you through your beautiful granddaughter Beth. You and your husband raised Beth to be one of the finest women I know. Beth is a brilliant engineer, a formidable woman of impeccable morals and sterling integrity. She is who she is because of your and your husband’s love, care, and support. Rest in peace.
