“ I'd like the memory of me
to be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave
when life is done.

Oh Helena, believe me we all will cherish your memory in all the ways of this poem. I liked u the MOMENT I met u lightyears ago, so glad to have shared so many laughs on F.B. I will miss you terribly in my life.

“Helen” was fun to be around and she will be missed. Even though our paths didn't cross much as adults, when we did get together it was like we had seen each other yesterday. May she Rest In Peace.

“ Helena and I were closest when we were both young and our parents would play pinochle at our grandparents house on Audubon Avenue in Jersey City. As the night wore on, we two were led to a nearby bedroom, within earshot of the kitchen, so we would not be staying up too late. This always delighted me as I would now have the opportunity to scare the willies out of my little cousin (4 years younger than myself), by telling beloved fairy tails but adding on a few gruesome details. For the rest of our time on earth together, whenever we met , we would laugh and joke about these embellished fairy tales and her fun loving response!
