“ To my beloved Granddaddy. God only knows how much I will miss you and our special relationship as Granddaddy and Granddaughter. You knew me better than anyone. I will see you again someday. You would be proud of all of us and the beautiful way we are laying you to rest, even though we know you are not in that sick body and you have a brand new body now. I know you can't see us because you are in heaven, and there, it is no sadness. I love you Granddaddy and we will take care of Grandmother.

Your beloved granddaughter,
Donna
