“ My fondest memory of Irma was when she came to Texas in the early 2000’s with Corky, Allen and Hilde for the “cousin’s reunion” for my grandmother and all her first cousins on the Gladney side of the family. We threw a big Texas bar-b-que with all the trimmings and I made a strawberry cake for dessert that Irma absolutely fell in love with. I was almost worried the dainty, sweet, quiet woman was gonna get into it with Corky over the last piece a few days later, lol! I can never make that cake without thinking fondly of her. RIP, Irma and my condolences to aCorky and the rest of the family. XOXO Terri
