“ To all Irene's family, My deepest sympathies. I did not hear of Irene's passing until after the services. I too will miss my past co-worker and dear friend. We shared many wonderful memories from our Space Shuttle days. For 18 years we enjoyed her tremendous talents with the T-shirts she designed and made for our Shuttle Girls Get-aways. She was a gracious, talented, wonderful woman. I will truly miss her too!! Our prayers and thoughts are will all of you... I feel I know each and everyone personally she loved you so much.

“ Irene, a grand and gracious lady.

Her artistic ability, creativity, sense of composition, intelligence and job performance are all outstanding.

Her love of life, family, friends, and co-workers is evident.

She was an inspiration and a joy to all who worked with her.

Her outlook on life is commendable.

I am proud to know her and grateful for her friendship.

She made my job easier with constructive and positive inputs.

Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss.

“ Michael, I was very sad to hear you lost your Mom. I don't remember hearing you say she was ill, and I understand it was unexpected. I know you miss her already, and Lanie, Katie, Erin, and David miss their grandmother, but she will live on in your memories. All the IP folks are thinking of you, but especially our group. God will comfort you and your family with His Mercy and Grace as you trust in Him to provide.

“ Many hugs and prayers at this time for all of you. As I wrote to you earlier, she was loved by every and forgotten by none. May her memories that you have stored within your hearts continue to help you walk this path as you rejoice in the life she led here with all of you. It takes a strong woman to smile as much as she always did, raising as many children as she did, and enjoying her husband, children and grandchildren. Lucky Lady, Blessed by Many.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although I just knew your family for a short time, I was impressed by the way you all got along and had so much respect for each other and your mother/ grandmother. You all were a great example of what family is all about. You reminded me of my family and how lucky people are who have many loved ones compared to those who have few. I hope that you will find peace and God will help through all of this. It was a pleasure meeting you.
