“ Mr Stroud helped us plan my Mother's funeral in 1997. He was so kind and helpful through that difficult time. I appreciated his compassion and help.

I also worked with Whitney at ALH. She was always kind also. Miss seeing her.

My condolences to the family.

“ Mr. Stroud always had a way of helping others through such difficult times. Whether it was a kind word, a smile, or a gesture, you knew he really cared. My deepest sympathy to the family. May all of these posts be words of comfort in the same manner that Mr. Stroud comforted so many through the years.

“ Jimmy Stroud was a good man. My daddy loved to tease him that it was "Just not his time to go yet". When the day came that my father had passed away, Jimmy was the one I spoke with to come to Birmingham to pick my daddy up. He was a kind man and I am better for just knowing him. Jason Black “ Daddy, you were first person who help me when I was born. From that day on I always knew I was your baby girl. Anyone who knew me always called me a daddy's girl. You were there for everything or when I was struggling. You have been there for most of your grandchildrens births and school functions or sports. I know your not suffering anymore and your parents and your granddaughter, please give Katie a kiss for me and Brandon. We love you so much and you will always be with us. Your baby girl will always miss you. I love you daddy love you baby girl !

“ Jimmy was not only a business associate, he was a friend. I have a peony that he gave me MANY years ago and I think of him when it blooms -- he truly cared about the families he served and I don't think he ever met a stranger. You will remain in our memories for a long time and we are so thankful for the laughs, the things you taught us, the times we sent our staff to fix the phones (because phones not working was enough to cause him to stress!), the morning calls to check in -- yes, you made lots of lasting memories. Mary and family, he loved you all very much and he cared for you-- prayers for the upcoming days.

I have known Jimmy since he was in High School. He was also working part time at McConnell Funeral Home. Jimmy was such a nice young man, believe or not he was the bashful type. I watched him grow into a very caring person as he attended the needs of families of loved ones that had passed away. He was just a good all around person. He will really be missed. Seemed like a part of my own family. Rest in Peace, Dear Friend. Doris Black

I knew Jimmy through the funeral industry. He was always so nice and kind spoken. I knew him as one of the most dedicated people to work in the funeral industry. I remember Jimmy showing me his fifty year pin that he earned from working fifty years in the funeral industry. Jimmy had tears in his eyes as he showed me his pin and spoke about it.. Receiving that pin was one of the proudest moments in his life. There are not many in this industry that is as dedicated as he was. May he rest in peace finally after suffering for so long.
