

Jo Sims Rudolph

December 28, 1942 - October 26, 2021

Jo Sims Rudolph, 78 of Athens, passed away on Tuesday, October 26th, 2021, at her home surrounded by family. Jo was born on December 28th, 1942, to Marion R. Sims and Margaret R. Sims, of Athens. She was a devoted mother and grandmother to her son, Sol Rudolph, and her three grandchildren, Justin, Shelby, and Madison.

She graduated from Athens High School and went on to graduate from Athens State College. She served as librarian at Athens Public Library before starting her career in social work at the Department of Human Resources. After her retirement, she continued to serve her community as a caregiver to many families.

Jo is survived by her son Sol V. Rudolph (Julie); her grandchildren Justin Vann Rudolph, Shelby Delynn Rudolph, and Madison Leigh Morrow (Will); as well as many cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Visitation will be Thursday, October 28th, 2021, from 5:00-8:00pm at Limestone Chapel Funeral Home. She will have a graveside service on Friday, October 29th, at 11:00am at Roselawn Cemetery in Athens.

“ I just now saw the obituary and news about Jo. I really liked her and our paths haven't crossed lately. I taught for a long time at Athens State and first got to know her there. She was a lovely, sweet lady. I know you will miss her. She made the world a sweeter, brighter place.

Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Jo. I worked/volunteered with her at Athens/Limestone County Habitat for Humanity. She was a joy to know and a mentor to me with Habitat. I will keep you all in my prayers. We will see her again!

“ Jo was my very first best friend when we were three years old. We were neighbors for 14 years and could finish each other’s sentences. We continued on as friends throughout her life even thou we were separated by miles. We would call or run into one another and could pick up where we left off. Her passing leaves a lot of special memories and a sadness in my heart.
