

John D Furline Jr.

March 7, 1963 - October 7, 2021

John D Furline, Jr., 58, of Athens, passed away on Thursday, October 7th, 2021. Visitation will be Tuesday, October 12th, 2021, from 12:00 to 1:30 p.m. at the Limestone Chapel Funeral Home, with Adam Brewer and Troy Young officiating. Graveside service for Mr. Furline will be Tuesday, October 12th, 2021, at 2:00 p.m. at Roselawn Cemetery. Burial will be at Roselawn Cemetery. Pallbearers will be family and friends.

Mr. Furline is survived by his wife of thirty-seven years, Dawn Furline; daughters Breanna Furline (Colin) and Taylor Furline; granddaughter Ava Grace Furline; sisters Shirley Dixon, Patricia Brown (George), and Peggy Tunstill.

Johnny was a devoted husband, a loving father and Bebeppop, a faithful believer in Jesus, and a generous and kind friend. He gave of himself to serve others loyally whether they asked him to or not. He was our family's rock and refuge. He loved riding his Harley, fixing old jeeps, and was constantly coming up with ways to give to others. His girls were his world. Humble and strong, he talked less than he listened, and was the reflection of who we're called to be in Christ.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital – (stjude.org), and Shriners Children's | Shriners Hospitals for Children (shrinerschildrens.org)

“ Loved when Johnny and I had private talks. His insight to things was amazing and his humble attitude was to be admired. Quite waters run deep. His death is a real blow to our community. God only knows the quite way he went about helping others. We all loved Johnny! Our love goes to Dawn and all the family! So sorry we are in Florida and will miss his celebration of his good life. With Love Wayne and family
