“ To the Family Ben was a GREAT friend and coworker to me. He will be sadly missed by me and my family. I can say that during the time he was here and the short time we spent together he gave life meaning and he was truly a great blessing. I share with you all a special Poem. SOME DAYS They tell me life's a journey That will take me many years Some days are filled with laughter And some days are filled with tears Some days I think my heart will break That I can't persevere Some days I have to don a mask And hide beneath its veneer Some days I turn and look for you With thoughts I'd like to share Some days I just can't understand The reason you're not there Some days the sadness leaves me And my smile will reappear Some days I close my eyes because Your memory is so clear Some days I struggle to go on Just wishing you were near Most days I spend in gratitude That you were ever here Jessica Chastang

“ Ben and I got into a pretty heated argument at about something stupid. After a couple days we sat down and talked and ever since then we were really close. It was hard for Ben to hide his feelings and if you crossed him or helped him he would respond appropriately. When Mrs Stacy was sick I made sure to go see Ben everyday. He would give anyone the shirt off his back and he will be missed more than words can say. He loved his family tremendously and loved to talk about every one of you. Thank you for letting us borrow him just a little while. Bryan T Few

“ I Had the privilege of working with Ben at AN/NS. I learned that Ben was a man of very few words. But when he spoke it was of truth. I do know Ben Loved the lord and his family. God blessing on you > Rest in Peace.
