“ I remember Coach Young well. I was a member of that 1965 undefeated East Limestone team. He was a good man and he set a good example for us as a coach. I will miss running in to him aroud town as I did over the years. My deepest sympathies to his family.

“ Coach Young was a great inspiration to me because of the way he treated me and all of his students at East Limestone. He was respectful and caring while demanding our best efforts each day. When I was injured in a basketball game, he called his dentist and took me to be treated before taking me home. A great role model for all of us.
