“ Dang bro .... I didn't know your funeral was today , I wish I could have made it ..... it really hurt me to find out that something happened to you and then let alone this .... Man I wish I could have been there for you more than I already was ... I tried adding your sister on Snapchat to say a few encouraging words lol bc I remember when I ran into you at Walmart with your sister and her girlfriend lol how shocked we both were to finally see each other after months of texting online the smile and positive attitude was so familiar I knew you were a true person ... you will be truly missed
