“ Aunt Joyce is my mother's sister. My mom, Clarice, and my sister Barbara were killed in a car wreck when I was eight years old. My younger sister and I were in that car wreck as well. Within a moments time, my mom and sister died in the car wreck. It would be a traumatic scene I would relive the rest of my life. My Aunt Joyce and Uncle Bob would visit and just love my sisters and I. Throughout my life, she would share sweet memories of my mom and it meant so much, She favored my mother and she was such a loving presence. I will miss her and her sweet voice. Thank you Aunt Joyce for being such an inspiration to me.

“ Harold and I send our deepest condolences to Uncle Bob, Sandy, Tim, and the rest of the family, as well as Aunt Joyce's many, many friends. She always welcomed us with open arms, was so kind and loving. I will remember all of the fun times we had together, especially in the summertime. We are sad that she is no longer among us on earth but take solace knowing she is in heaven, free from pain. God Bless, from Harold and Tonya

“ I will always have such happy, fond memories of Aunt Joyce; memories filled during countless summer visits to see her and Uncle Bob. She had the most amazing laugh and was truly a kind, caring soul. I will miss her dearly but take comfort knowing she's in heaven. Harold and I send our deepest sympathies to Uncle Bob, Sandy, Timmy, and all her grandchildren, great grandchildren and friends. God bless, from Tonya & Harold

PO

Aunt Joyce, I am so thankful for the phone conversations, we had. You will be missed terribly, such a beautiful person, inside and out. It is comforting to know, that you are eternal comfort with no pain, with our heavenly Father. May God give comfort to Uncle Bob, Sandy, Timmy, grandchildren, and great grandchildren. Love ya
