

Judy Mae Turner

October 19, 1927 - March 28, 2017

Judy Mae Turner, age 89 of Athens, AL passed away on Tuesday, March 28, 2017 at her residence. Mrs. Turner was born on October 19, 1927 in Nashville, TN to Laroy and Mary Sturdivant Bishop.

She was preceded in death by her daughter, Linda Piper.

Mrs. Turner is survived by her husband, Paul Turner of Athens, AL; daughter, Beverly Stovall (Kenneth) of Athens, AL; son, Dwight Turner of Houston, TX; 13 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild.

Mrs. Turner was a member of Lindsay Lane Baptist Church and formerly a member of Greenbrier Baptist Church.

Services for Mrs. Turner will be Friday, March 31, 2017 at 2:00PM at Limestone Chapel Funeral Home with Rex Tucker and Dusty McLemore officiating. The family will receive friends from 12:00-1:45. Burial will take place in Limestone Memorial Gardens.

Pallbearers will be Brian Usery, Michael Piper, Scott Piper, Christopher Nave, Matthew Nave, and Kenny Stovall.

In lieu of flowers, please make memorials to your favorite charity in Mrs.

Turner's memory. For those looking for a memorial to donate to in lieu of flowers, this is a family that my sister Chris teaches at Shullsburg High. While we were on our way to celebrate our grandmas life here in Dixie, they lost all they have in a fire. My grandma and my mom would be smiling if they knew we could help them. God bless. #getdirtyandservesome1 Romans 12 : 2

“ Although I didn't enjoy the privilege of spending an abundance of time with Aunt Judy I can say this. Never do I ever remember her in a bad mood. Always had that beautiful smile, kind words and magnetic disposition regardless of the situation. THAT'S what I'll always fondly remember about Aunt Judy.

Rest In Peace Lady. You will be missed.
