Mrs. Jones was a lifelong member of the Sardis Springs community in Limestone County. She graduated from East Limestone High School and then attended Howard College (now Samford University). She and her husband were employed by the FBI in Washington, D.C. in 1955. She was an active member of Sardis Springs Baptist Church where she served as WMU and Church historian. She served with the local and associational WMU since 1954. She worked as a leader in Sunday School and Training Union. She volunteered with Vacation Bible School for more than 35 years. She began playing piano at the age of 10 and served as organist at Sardis Springs Baptist Church since 1964. She played piano for Music Makers (young musicians) for 39 years and Mission Friends for many years. She worked with Senior Citizens for 10 years and was a former member of Homemakers Club. She worked in the public school system first as a music teacher in 1967 and taught children's art for 3 years at age 73. She began teaching art classes in the 1980s and was still actively conducting classes out of her basement studio at the time of her passing. Her hobbies included baking and decorating cakes for family and friends, reading, cooking, working in her flower garden and her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
