“ My Choir partner and mentor. Justina always set the example of how to be happy at all times, through all troubles and problems she and I sometimes faced. She always ministered words of warm positive wisdom. I could go on and on about our friendship, but at this time I am too emotionally drained to write anymore. Justina's path crossing mine will be a pleasant memory for me. LOL to Rodney and Jazz. From : Charlet Jones

“ Justina will forever be in all of our hearts. She was loving wife, mother, and genuine friend. I recall meeting her my first day at Prep-Tech. She just came back from maternity leave and she brought Jasmine to work to meet us all. Justina told me to hold the baby I was so nervous, and she said you better not drop her, and then she smiled and laughed. Our co-workers then told me she must think highly of you. I say all that because she never met a stranger. Please remember this poem: that grief never ends... but it changes. It's a passage, not a place to stay. Grief is not a sign of weakness, nor a lack of faith...it is the price of love.
