“ Colton and family members,
I'm sorry to read of your loved one's passing and may all find comfort in our Lord's word during this time of sadness.
In the words of Jesus found in John 11:23-26;
“Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.” Martha said to Him,
“I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”
Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die. Do you believe this?”
A wonderful promise from our Lord Jesus that we can believe and have confidence in.
God's continued blessings be upon you all.

“ I rememer when Kenneth n me were in first grade together. He was in my room for a brief period before Kenneth got moved into another first grade class. I sure hated it to cause he always told me if anybody ever bothered me he would woop 'em. Kenneth "ALWAYS" made me feel protected n by him telling me this, I thought of course that "NOBODY" could ever touch me with a 10-foot post. Well, sure enough now that I'm feeling all comfy with my Squirrel the teacher decided he was suppose to go across the hall from the room I was in. Now knowing from wat all Kenneth had told me, I was afraid since he was going to another classroom that I was open to anybody's harm. But there is one thing I remember that it seemed to always be. Everytime i would try n look across the hall for my squirrel, he'd be bent over gettin a tail woopin. Never the less not one paddling seem to amount to the other one. Lil squirrel never seemed to flinch at any of them. This is all funny now that I got over n older. Kenneth got woopings n i don't say whippings cause back in our day "woopings" is wat we know it as. But , all i am saying was that Kenneth was not only my "PROTECTOR"but a cuz that was tough on the outside. A heart as simple as it came n someone I'd call A MAN WITH A HEART THAT'S GOOD AS GOLD.
R.I.P MY SQUIRREL- I LOVE YOU WITH ALL MY HEART.
YOUR CUZ, KENIA
