“ My thoughts and prayers to family of Kyle. He was a moving force in our community and many others. He worked along side his wife with the Baptist Association Emergency Services. He was an advocate, a trainer, a walking resource of knowledge and a dear friend to so many. Our state, county and city will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers to his family.

“ Nobody could sing Oh What A Savior like Brother Kyle. Charlotte had him to sing it for me a few months ago and it's a memory I will cherish always. I will surely miss my friend but know I will see him again someday when Jesus brings us all together again.
