“ James Family. I am sorry for your loss. Larry was special and touched people with his energy and positive attitude. I'll always remember him from our days at Texas A&M and as new graduates partying in Dallas. I am sure you are proud of his successes as a military officer, father, and friend. Elwin Whetsel

“ Larry and I were both Texas A&M Class of '65. Although losing contact after graduation, I've found out we were both in Vietnam at about the same time. Larry was a good guy and always made everyone laugh. I'm attaching a photo of a 1965 poker game in my room at A&M with Larry and others who will no doubt be sadden like me by his passing.
