“ My daddy. Although a lot of ups and downs, we ended up with peace in our hearts. That’s what matters the most. RIP daddy I wish we had more time. Jackie

“ Larry was a long time friend. He married before me. After I married He called one night,said He was moving so we went to see them and in the process bought his furniture. This was our first furniture we had. Larry and I had a lot of fun. At 16 we each had our parents cars and we many times on a bridge coming out of Pulaski. Later Larry was in an accident going home after we had been to a concert. He had no car then so I would pick him up at his home. We laugh together played together and prayed at church together. I recently tried to locate him with no luck. I am sure sorry to hear of his death and would like to see his sisters. I will try to locate them. If I had know sooner I would have been at the service. Larry was seven months older than me and one month older than our friend Dan Mcmasters who recently passed. Hope we all are in heaven together. Joe M Cottrell Sr.
