“ Even though it has been many years since I have seen or even talked to Lebron, I think of him often. He was one of my very best friends in middle and high school, and just hearing a Hank Williams, Jr. song on the radio brings back so many great memories of him. He was always so witty and had such a way with words. It hurts my heart to know he is no longer on this earth, but I hope to see him again some day.

“ Miles Family, may you find comfort in God’s promise at Revelation 21:3,4. “God may be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things has passed away.”

“ Worked with Lebron for years at Sirsi. I cannot recall a bad thought or word coming from this man. Always positive. Always a gentleman.

“ Lebron made such an impact in my life as a dear friend and mentor. I loved his humor, the fact that he always made time to meet for lunch or catch-up when Our paths would intersect. He loved his family so much. He was always willing to push outside the box and yet had a deep respect and loyalty for others while helping them succeed. So thankful for the fact that our paths crossed. -Kristiana Burk
