“ Lisa would ride down to our house on her go cart and take us for rides. She would bring snack food and we would all have picnics in the old barn behind our house. Push lots of hay out of the loft and jump in it. We had so much fun. She holds a place in my heart.

“ To my sweet cousin. I wish I had taken the time to visit more often and now that chance is gone. You were always so thoughtful to check on me after my Daddy died. Rest in peace

“ She was always so sweet. I loved one summer hailing hay with her and her dad. She could throw that hay bale up there and I would struggle and she laughed and helped me with it.. She will be missed. Praying for comfort for the family and friends.
