“ Lisa was such a sweet, caring person. We watched her grow up and were so happy to hear she was moving into her grandmother's house. I'm sure she is telling Ms. Virgie all about it now. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time and in the days to come. May the Lord wrap his arms around you all and give you comfort. Just know that you have many, many friends who are lifting you up in prayer. Love, Randy and Carol Hampton

“ My condolences go out to the family of Lisa. I knew her well. I use to call on her at the sanitation department when I use to sell chemicals and also knew her from school even though she was a few grades behind me. I went to school with Bryan. She will be missed by her family and friends. Again, my deepest sympathy goes out to the family.
