“ So very sorry ,Amy, Andy &JP to read of the loss of your Mom! I just bet your Dad welcomed her w/ open arms & telling her he missed her so much!!

When living on Edgewood Dr in Portsmouth Ohio, we had do much fun in that neighborhood , especially when Ed, Bill Clifford, Ron Williams, Harry & “Red” Griffin would get together at a cookout at one of our houses-which many times were at Ron & Joyce’s house(they had a very nice pool which kept all the young kids very occupied swimming!! I couldn’t begin to measure the amount of fun we had, especially when Ed “got on a roll” telling stories!!! I do believe I can almost hear all of us “girls “ still laughing & Marilyn laughing & shaking her head saying “Yeah! That’s my Edward”!!!& then we laughed some more!!!

Their boys & my Todd were best of friends & what one didn’t think about doing something the other would !! Andy & Todd were always together & they included JP occasionally plus Ronnie & Debbie , they always had a ballgame going usually in our front yard, that way Michael , who was older brother to Todd but confined to his wheelchair, could be umpire - they always had fun , very rarely any disagreements although a time or 2, Marilyn or I would referee😭😭😭

So many fun memories Marilyn & I had , too numerous to mention, for sure!!!

Amy, Andy & JP Prayers for the 3 of you as I’m truly sorry for your loss of an outstanding Mom !!!

“ My deepest sympathy in your grief, and the loss of this sweet girl. I'm sure she told you many times about the idyllic life we enjoyed growing up in New Boston, Ohio. Marilyn was an ideal 1950s-era teenager: pretty, friendly, fun, good dancer, and beautifully dressed. I remember when she married Ed and we all jumped for joy we were so happy because we knew he was a terrific guy. It was meant to be. We will see her one day at that Grande Reunion, but until then - yes, I've cried too. I am so sorry. Jannie Schomburg Marshall class of 1961
