

Matthew David Middleton

August 10, 1965 - August 12, 2020

Graveside service for Matthew David Middleton, 55, will be announced at a later date.

Matt died Wednesday, Aug. 12, 2020, at his home in Smyrna, Georgia. He was born Aug. 10, 1965, in Saginaw, Michigan, to Clare and Karen Middleton.

Matt was a 1983 graduate of Athens High School and held a Bachelor of Architecture with a double major in Building Sciences from Auburn University. He had worked as an architect for nearly 30 years in St. Louis, Missouri, and Atlanta, Georgia. He was a skilled long-range muzzle loader shooter, having competed internationally in 2001 and 2007 in South Africa.

Survivors include his wife, Desirè Neethling Middleton of Smyrna; daughter, Emily Lynn Grace Middleton, of Smyrna; his father, Clare Donald Middleton of Athens, Alabama; and his mother, Karen Wright Middleton of Elkmont, Alabama.

He was predeceased by a brother, Mark Wright Middleton; a sister, Amy Brook Middleton; his paternal grandparents, Carl and Ilene Middleton, and his maternal grandparents, James and Mary Wright, all late of Mayville, Michigan.

Memorials may be made to the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, 3525 Piedmont Road NE 6-300, Atlanta, GA 30305.

Local arrangements are being handled by Limestone Chapel Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

KO

“ Middleton family, so sorry to read about the recent passing of Matt. Prayers for comfort during this sad time. Keith & Patsy Oldroyd

Keith and Patsy Oldroyd - September 05, 2020 at 01:16 PM

MH

“ Matt was my neighbor for over 20 years, many times we would meet at the fence to talk and catch up on how each of us were doing etc. I will miss our talks and miss my neighbor, He was a good man and a good friend. May God bless Desi and Emmy and Yotus Mickey Hembree

Mickey Hembree - August 16, 2020 at 10:13 PM