“ Andy, I can not put into words the sadness and shock I felt when I saw you had passed. I missed one day checking your page for any sign of good news. I prayed faithfully for you, Reagan, Vickie, your mother, all of your family. It is bitter sweet that when you passed I was at Harvey's picking my car up. I couldn't locate the mechanic I had been using and then it dawned on me that you had told me about Harvey's garage and you were right. I will always remember your gentle, kind, caring soul that was always in your eyes and smile. I saw in you what I saw in my Daddy and that is a very rare gift from God. You blessed your family, friends, and so many others in a way that few people ever do. I kept praying and believing that "You Would Get Back Up". God wanted to take you home with the angels where you will not know any more pain and suffering. You were a blessing in my life that I will never forget. I will pray for Reagan, Vickie, your mother, and all of your family. Your friend, Pat Lovell

“ Andy was a very uplifting person to everyone. He always had a smile and never a bad word to say about anyone, nor did he complain about ANYTHING. I remember hanging out with Julie, Andy, Victor and Susan Clem, having so much sweet fun, listening to music, riding motorcycles, just riding around, playing games, always having the time of our lives. Andy didn't have any enemies, was very quiet and reserved, but if somebody needed something, he was the first to jump up and get it done, no matter what the task. He is loved by so many and will NEVER be forgotten. Heaven gained the sweetest angel on earth! Fly high, sweet Andy! We all have a wonderful, caring, compassionate angel looking over us all now. I'm so glad, as well as everyone else, that Andy doesn't have to endure anymore pain and suffering. God Bless his sweet family and give them strength and comfort during this great loss.

“ Vickie, through our friendship with you and Pat, we became friends with your family. Andy was a very kind and giving man. He made it clear he loved his older sister. We thought a lot of Andy. We always enjoyed talking with him. Reagan, I know you were his pride and joy. Robbie, I can't imagine your pain. Just know your sweet son loved you totally. He loved all of you guys and I know you all loved him and his passing leaves a whole in your heart. Y'all went so far and beyond anything I have ever seen a family go in trying to care for him and help him heal. Your family, including Kathy, did all that was humanly possible. Hugs and prayers are going out to all the Duncan and Marks family. Love y'all. Richard and Debbie Nichols
