“ Our family have known the Quillens for over 30 years. I remember when Mike and Mary Ann lived up near Ardmore and locked themselves out of their house. They had me bring up my daughter, then 4 yrs old, and Mike boosted her through a window to unlock the door. We got such a laugh from that. We will miss Mike. He was such a dear friend.

Condolences to Mary Ann and family. We thought so much of you and Mike. You may not remember me by name but we bought two English bulldogs from you and was so thankful to find friendship through our desire for your dogs. I talked to you at Meagans burial. It was so nice seeing you again. Hoping to see you real soon and you have our blessings and condolences. Teresa Martindale
