“ Donald, We are so sorry for you and the family during the time of Millie's homegoing. Our prayers are with y'all during this difficult time. Millie was such a special lady. I am thankful for God allowing y'all to be part of my life. Your love for the Lord and life devoted to Him has been an inspiration. We pray that you will experience the strong and loving arms of God around you as He carries you through the difficult days ahead.

“ We have known Mrs. Millie for many years. She was always a godly woman who showed forth Christ in her life. We are sorrowed for your loss on this earth. We praise the Lord for the opportunity of knowing her and the Vickers family. We praise the Lord for the comfort of one day seeing her again in heaven one day.
