“ To the Family of our friend, Milton Clem:

We knew Milton when he lived in Nashville, TN and we visited him once he retired to Alabama. Milton opened up his heart and and his home to us more than once. We shared many a meal with this dear Brother in CHRIST.

In our older years we lost contact with him, but during the time we knew him he was a man of compassion, doing things like sending funds to dig wells for native peoples and supporting missionaries at home and abroad.

When I received notice of Milton's passing into Glory, I was sad but I had to rejoice that Milton loved JESUS , his SAVIOR forever.

Milton was a unique soul who lit our lives with a fervor for CHRIST JESUS every time we met .

Milton loved to share the Scriptures and would talk with every person he met about being baptized into CHRIST JESUS and about walking with HIM through life.

Yes, Milton had his share of normal struggles in this life, but he LOVED The LORD and took him seriously.

May his family be comforted now, knowing that Milton --- by the sure mercies of The LORD --- is alive and well and home with the SAVIOR Whom he loved and defended all of his life

*Sincerely,
Mrs. Earl (Judy) CLOUD*

“ I just heard of Milton's death. I worked with him for many years at Metro Social Services. He was a fine man and very smart in many areas of life. He was especially Biblically knowledgeable and I admired his ability to effectively share the gospel. I look forward to seeing him again one day and being around him in all eternity. Sympathy to his survivors. Friend, Gwen Willis

We were in Alabama trying to find Milton's phone number to visit him, but just discovered the sad news via this obituary. We were so looking forward to seeing him again, as we knew him in Nashville as a precious, humble, devoted (zealous) follower of Jesus with a heart for the poor. May Milton rest in peace and the memory of him bring a great blessing and comfort to all.
