“ Sweet Aunt Mollie! I can still hear her laugh and see her smile. I remember going to Florence on random Sunday's throughout the years to hear Uncle Arthur preach. We'd go back to their house to eat Kentucky fried chicken and some homemade cooking, to visit and to laugh. They are fond memories. Aunt Mollie always engaged me in conversation and sent a Christmas card each year. In recent years she sent me pillow cases with her handy work on them. They are treasures. She loved Jesus. She loved me. I am thankful for her life.
