“ Bonnie and I share the grief of Miss Nancy's family. But we count it joy to have known her and be loved by her. How blessed! The last faces she saw on this earth were the faces of those beautiful granddaughters, and the first face she saw on the other side was the face of Jesus. She was a good and faithful servant, telling the story of Jesus to countless five year olds for 37 years. What a legacy.
