

Norman L. Hamm Jr.

September 1, 1944 - October 31, 2020

Norman L. Hamm, Jr., 76 of Athens, passed away on Saturday, October 31st, 2020 at Hospice Family Care. Mr. Hamm was born on September 1st, 1944, to Norman L. Hamm Sr., and Virginia Harris Hamm.

Graveside service for Mr. Hamm will be on Tuesday, November 3rd, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. at Roselawn Cemetery with Joel Hamm officiating.

Mr. Hamm is survived by son Jeff Hamm (Vickie), and Joel Hamm (Sharma); grandchildren Clayton Hamm and Ragan Hamm; brother Sam Hamm; and sisters Virginia Porter (David) and Brenda Whitworth (Bobby).

Preceded in death by his parents; wife Betty Clayton Hamm; and sister Jean Johnson.

Norman graduated Woodlawn High School in 1961, at the age of 16, with a music scholarship to the University of Alabama. He attended UA & played in the Million Dollar Band, performing with that elite group at the Sugar Bowl when the football team won a National Championship. Transferring to Samford University, Norman graduated at age 20 and, in the mid-60's, served his country in Vietnam.

Norman owned and operated Champion Chevrolet from 1983 until he retired.

An accomplished musician & extremely successful businessman, Norman was an “under-cover” philanthropist, always helping others without drawing attention to himself or his success. For many years, he was involved with the Miss Alabama pageant, providing the new vehicle for our Miss Alabama’s personal appearances & private use. Only Norman knows who and how he assisted individuals & families over the course of 50 years. Norman loved beach trips, playing golf, singing gospel music, and watching Alabama football.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks for donations to Hospice of Limestone or Athens Bible School.

Tribute Wall

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have a lot of great memories, especially at Christmas time. Praying that God gives you peace and strength. 🙏

Christy Collins - November 02, 2020 at 07:43 PM

“ Norman L. Hamm Jr.

Jim Wells - November 01, 2020 at 12:42 PM